Popina

Popina – thspace for eating meals and conduc inn or eating-house (popina).

The tent serves as a place for the daily meetings of camp participants, where shared meals, rest, and Latin language lessons are organised. Thanks to its large size, it can accommodate a greater number of people and serves as the central point of camp life.

NOTE! (I forgot how to add those red rectangles) Every legionary is responsible for maintaining order in the popina, rubbish should be disposed of, and everyone should make sure to leave the place tidy after themselves. Any violation of the rules will be severely punished.
